LUTHERAN CHURCH
OF GRAYS HARBOR

RESURRECTION MEANS THE WORST THING IS NEVER THE LAST THING.

- Frederick Buechner

Sometimes words sound hollow. They are inadequate to convey the depth of our feelings. In light of the relentless tragedies in our world, it is easy to despair. Our crucified and risen Lord, doesn't let us off that easy though. We are called to love, not only when it is easy. We are called to love not only with words, with "thoughts and prayers" but with a tough, muscular love that refuses to back down from the truth that there is no excuse for allowing the conditions to continue that make it possible for so many people to murder wantonly with guns. There is no excuse for poverty and homelessness.

And so we turn to the poets and we turn to the poetry of scripture. We turn to prayer that begins with tears, continues with wails of lament and produces acts of bold love: advocating for commonsense gun laws, advocating for adequate mental health facilities and funding, reaching out to every young person we know so that they have at least one caring adult in their lives that may be able to help them find a hopeful way into the future. And we pray, Lord have mercy...

“Save us, O God, from vacuous promises.
Give our society a collective spine.

Compel us to watch these funerals.
Help us feel the weight of tiny coffins carried down the center aisle of limestone churches where little ones were promised, “You’ll be loved.”

Imprint the image of sobbing mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers, uncles and aunts, grandmas and grandpas in our so easily distracted heads.

Make us look. And remember.

And then give us strategies and gumption and trust

for each other.
Give us everything we need to stop this violence.
Fix resolve in our hearts with your fierce love.

Surely you hold these lambs, these precious lambs,
this night.

Do not allow us to forget those who have suffered and died in this terrible season.

Save us. Save us and the children who deserve our collective care.
Amen.”

Rev. Scott Black Johnston, a Presbyterian pastor in New York City, in response to the murder of students in Uvalde.

The Slaughter of the Innocents

“A voice is heard in Ramah,
weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children
and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.” (Matthew 2:18)

Our hearts are torn open by the killing of 19 Fourth Graders and two teachers in Uvalde, Texas. This happens just ten days after the racist killing of ten African American shoppers at a grocery store in Buffalo and eight days after the killing and wounding of Taiwanese Americans at a Presbyterian church in Southern California. My heart is filled with grief, outrage, and the necessity to act.

First, utter grief. I can only begin to imagine the raw grief of the parents in Uvalde who sent their children off to school in the morning, fully expecting them to return home. As a parent, my heart aches with them. I know that no mere words can address this grief.

Second, I feel utter and growing outrage that we, as a nation, continue to be possessed by the power of three destructive forces: racism, emotional despair among many youths, and our acceptance of gun violence as a “solution” to our conflicts. The tragic and hate-filled slaughter of ten African American people is the abhorrent tip of the iceberg of the disrespect and outright violence that people of color experience every day. The majority of mass murders in our country have been carried out by young white males who are in varying stages of emotional disconnection and mental fragility. However, our public financial support of mental health programs remains minimal. Finally, caught up in our fears as a nation, we allow large-scale access to destructive arms designed for war.

When it comes to mass shootings, we Lutherans cannot simply point the finger at others. An ELCA Lutheran 12th grade boy was one of the two shooters who massacred 12 students and a teacher in Columbine, Colorado in 1999. The white supremacist killing of nine Bible Study participants at Mother Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, SC, was carried out by a 21-year-old man who was ELCA Lutheran. We are connected not only to those who suffer, but to those who cause suffering. Therefore, we both grieve and repent.

Finally, however, we must be moved to act against racism, against gun violence, and in healing support of all those who are in a place of emotional despair and mental illness. The slaughter of the innocents in Bethlehem was Herod's fault. Today, in a democracy ruled by citizens, we must take responsibility for stopping the killing of children in our schools and the hate crimes that murder and wound so many.

FAMILY PROMISE UPDATE

We are very excited to welcome two new families to Family Promise this week, a mother and her 8-month-old son and a mother and her 20-month-old son! Our rotational shelter program continues to be suspended and the Day Center will be utilized as a static site. Thank you to Amazing Grace Lutheran Church for graciously allowing the use of the Day Center as our static shelter site.

If you or your congregation are interested in volunteering to bring meals, please sign up using our Meal Train: <https://mealtrain.com/k09ew0>

You can also sign up by calling our Case Manager Darci at 360-986-3948, sending an email to fpgh-casemanager@gmail.com, or messaging us on Facebook.

Our meal preparation procedure has been adjusted to meet the needs of both families' busy schedules. We ask that volunteers provide meals that can be warmed up or cooked by the families at their discretion. The preferred delivery times are: Mondays 7 AM - 3 PM, and Tuesday-Friday 10 AM - 3 PM.

If you need to drop off a meal outside of these hours, let me know and arrangements will be made.

Groceries and gift cards are also very much appreciated.

Please note that one person has a life-threatening, airborne allergy to crustaceans, mollusks, and squid. We ask that meals do not contain any of these items: crab, lobster, crayfish, shrimp, prawns, squid, snails, clams, oysters, or scallops.

Any help is greatly appreciated. Thank you so much for volunteering your time and talent to support Family Promise of Grays Harbor! More opportunities to volunteer and support our families will be coming in the near future. Please let me know if you have any questions or would like more information!

HEALTHY CONGREGATIONS

Amazing Grace Church Council and the Mutual Ministry committee are reading Healthy Congregations: a systems approach by Peter Steinke. YOU are invited to read along with us. If you would like a book, please let us know by calling or emailing the office 360.532.8250, amazing111@comcast.net. Here is an excerpt from the book:

“Personal responsibility, which is to say responsible and enlightened behavior by each and every individual, truly is the key to good health.’ Health is promoted by personal activity. Health comes from measures that each person can affect.

The same could be said for a larger organism, such as a congregation. Like healthy people, congregations promote their health through “responsible and enlightened behavior.”

“Health is wholeness. Health means all the parts are working together to maintain balance. Health means all the parts are interacting to function as a whole....”

“Thus health is the capacity for life, what an organism must do to persevere. Health is the ability of a living system to respond to a wide assortment of challenges to its integrity.”

Please join us in reading and talking about this book together so that we nurture health within our congregation!
